

The Divine SECRET

Christ says, “I am the way, the truth, and the life”!

He is the epitome of positive energy, knowledge, wisdom, and FULNESS. In a word, he is the secret to these things.

What matters is understanding and internalizing the spiritual knowledge imparted in this secret. What matters is applying this to everyday social life.

The aim of imperfect, incomplete, and weak humanity in its fleeting existence is to absorb the spiritual knowledge imparted through this secret, to understand the experience of incompleteness that is part of oneself and to improve this understanding spiritually.

For without understanding that spiritual knowledge, without benefiting from that energy, wisdom, and fulness, it is impossible to fill the hole inside humanity and satiate it.

Our only hope is “Christ, in whom are hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge” (Colossians 2:3).
